

Restaurants, Cafes and Takeaway

Looe has a wide variety of eateries, this list is a selection of places we have enjoyed over the years. Venues - nearest to furthest...

Jolly Sailor Inn - The ancient hub of West Looe, the pub is a friendly environment popular with locals and visitors. Sea shanties and events liven many nights through the Summer, and the pub becomes a cosy nook in Winter. Pub grub and a great selection of wines, beer, ales and spirits. 01503 263387

Tasty Corner Cafe - Known as Jake's locally, the cafe has been in the same family for decades. Great for al fresco coffees, Cream Tea, light bites but also a substantial lunch if you fancy Steak Pie, Fish and Chips or even a roast dinner on a Sunday. 07973 660995

The Sardine Factory - West Looe, along the pedestrian quay, past the church. A fine menu, with views across the Harbour. The restaurant is located on the upper floor of the old factory and net store, following a multimillion pound makeover. Elevator. 01503 770262

Portbyhan Hotel - There are options for dining at the hotel, from a la carte to bar food, including Sunday Lunch. The recent refurbishment now includes a glass lift to bar/restaurant levels. Great in Winter, to sit by the window and watch the harbour. 01503 262071

Harbour Moon - West Looe, near the bridge. Popular with visitors, the Harbour Moon is a great spot for people watching and enjoying a burger. 01503 265600

Sea Kitchen/Raffles - A seafood restaurant, located beneath the Hannaford Hotel at ground level, with views across the Bay. The Raffles Bar at the Hotel also serves food, and the terrace is great for views and sea air. 01503 262456

Smugglers Cott Restaurant - Easily the most atmospheric restaurant in East Looe. The old smugglers haunt is great any time of the year, but Winter is perfect for candlelight and creaky old beams. Meat and fish are excellent. 01503 262397

La Bocca - Modern, stylish restaurant with authentic pizzas and lively sides and starters. The restaurant is located near East Looe Seafront, just past the Museum and Fisherman's Arms. 01503 265160

For deliveries 'Hideaway, Chapel Ground' and mention it's approximately half way up the steps. Most deliveries will come to the door, otherwise, you may need to walk to the bottom of the steps to collect.
